

Fairmont Catholic School

416 Madison St

Fairmont, WV 26554

304-363-5313

www.fairmontcatholic.com

Catholic Schools Week is January 30-February 3, and we have several special events planned to celebrate faith, academics, and service:

On Monday, we will kick off the week with an hourly novena and a living rosary. Our hourly novena will be a prayer we say together every hour on the hour, led by students over the intercom. Our novena will begin at 8:00 sharp, with all students gathered in the gym by 7:55. The novena will finish with a final recitation of the prayer at 4:00 by students at home. For the living rosary, students from grades 3-8 will be the rosary beads, so we are wearing colored shirts by classes for the different decades. Here are the colors: K=blue; 1= purple; 2=red; 3=yellow; 4=green; 5=orange; 6=maroon; 7=grey; 8=pink. We will take an all-school rainbow picture! The uniform for the day is colored shirts on top, jean on the bottom.

Tuesday we will be ready to Get Up & Move—that means that at random times during the day, we will be surprised with music over the intercom, and when the music plays, it's time to get up and move (so be practicing your dance moves)! Tuesday afternoon we will have a buddy game hour at the end of the day, with upper grade students playing board games, doing puzzles, and interacting with their K-3 buddies. We will wear regular uniforms on Tuesday.

On Wednesday we will enjoy a concert by the Elizabethans at 9:30 in the church. Parents are invited to attend. Wednesday is Look Alike day, so we are all going to try to look as similar as possible. Everyone (teachers included) will wear uniform white shirts and uniform khaki pants. We will take an all-school picture that day too.

Thursday is our day for the Catholic School Week Mass with all our priests. Mass is at 1:00, and parents are welcome. On Thursday, we will dress in our Sunday best. No jeans, please.

On Friday, we'd like to say thanks to our many volunteers—we couldn't do it without you! Please stop by the library during the day for a cookie and know that we truly appreciate all that you do. Students will wear regular uniforms on Friday.